women from fourteen U. D. C. Chapters.

They were all greatly interested in the idea of a Daughters-of-the-Confederacy building, to serve as headquarters for members of the organization visiting the Jamestown Exposition, and gave a series of tableaux, in which all of the Southern States were represented, to aid in a building fund. Virginla was charmingly represented on this occasion by Miss Halle Morson, of Fredericksburg, Va. Mrs. Walke came to Richmend yesterday and remained over to-day as the guest of Judge and Mrs. John Dew. She discussed "ways and means" with Mrs. Randolph, and will go next week it Asheville, N. C., where she, will met and talk to representatives from U. D. C. chapters in that section. As usual, the Old North State is leading, it having been the first to make an exposition appropriation, and now the first to raffe money for a Southern woman's exposition building.

An excellent programme was presented by Miss Carrie Sheppardson, Mr. Henry Rueger, Mr. Adam Diacont, Mr. Eugent Davis, Mr. Lonnie Wilson and Mr. J. L. Bickerstaff.

Mr. Rueger sang in splendid voice; so did Mr. Bickerstaff; Miss Shapperdson's performance was much admired; coon

Really Bully.

A nice little man,

With a pretty fair stomach, Hit it hard with the Coffee And got a little hummock

Right in the middle Of his hard-working liver, 'And the bottled-up bile

Made the little man shiver.

One day he had the colic; And the wise little chap Thought he better quit the frolic, For it dealt him such a rap. So the Coffee was let out

With a fair amount of grace, And a piping cup of Postum Was served

The World's a bubble, and the Life of Man
Loss than a span;
In his conception wretched, from the womb,
So to the tomb;
Curst from his cradic, and brought up to years
With caros and foars.
Who then to frail mortality shall trust,
But limns on water, or but writes in dust.

Yet whilst with sorrow here we live opprest,

What life is best?
Courts are but only superficial schools
To dandle fools:
The rural parts are turned into a den

Of savage men: .
And where's a city from foul vice so free,
But may be termed the worst of all the three?

Domestle cares afflict the husband's bed,
Or pains his head:
Those that live single, take it for a curse,
Or do things worset:
Some would have children; those that have them mean

Or wish them gone: What is it then, to have or have no wife. But single thraidom, or a double strife? Our own affection still at home to please

Is a disease:
To cross the seas to any foreign sell,
Peril and toll:
Wars with their noise afright us; when they cease, We are worse in peace;— What then remains, but that we still should cry
